5 Fun things to do while on Thanksgiving break by Mekaiya Scarvers

1. Watch football games- Watching football on thanksgiving break with your family can be very fun. You guys can watch the game while enjoying your break and enjoying each other's presence .
2. Make crafts- You and your family, if they would like, can make crafts. You guys can make turkeys out of your handprint and add feathers and googly eyes. You guys also can make pilgrim hats to wear at Thanksgiving dinner.
3. Watch the Macy's thanksgiving parade- If they have a parade this year you can watch it on the tv with your family. You and your family can enjoy all the different kinds of floats that they show.
4. Have a photoshoot- You and your family can have a photoshoot. You and your family can have a decorative background and pose for pictures while on Thanksgiving break.
5. Unwind- You can have a free break without thinking about all the school-work. You can enjoy a stress-free week of no school and spending quality time with your family
